

Félix Solís

D.O. Valdepeñas Viña Albali Reserva

Inspired by the starry clear night, Félix Solís wanted to create a wine that reflects the joyful and lively spirit of the Spaniard. He named this wine Albali, after a star in the constellation of Cassiopeia.

Viña Albali Reserva is made from a special selection of the best Tempranillo grapes from old vineyards with small production volumes. After a long maturation in oak barrels, the wines of this variety have an intense, ruby-red aroma of red fruits and a hint of vanilla and herbs.

Regionen

The name Valdepeñas comes from the eponymous city from antiquity, which is located in a sun-drenched river valley, dotted with small rock formations – Val de peñas (Valley of the Rocks). Located south of Castile-La Mancha in central Spain. The climate is dominated by extremes, with temperatures ranging from up to 40°C in summer and down to -10°C in winter. The future of this designation of origin lies in the hands of those who produce Tempranillo grapes, the red wines, which are well suited for aging, from the magnificent Crianzas, Reservas and Gran Reservas.

Verkostungsnotizen

Glossy red color. Strong, long-lasting aroma of vanilla, chocolate, herbs and marmalade-like fruit. On the palate, full-bodied, complex and elegant, with well-structured tannins and a long, soft finish.

Speiseempfehlung

A versatile wine, perfect for grilled meat, poultry, wild and Manchego cheese.

Technische Information

Thanks to a careful maceration, the expressive tannins are brought to the fore. After fermentation at controlled temperature, the wine matures for 12 months in barrels of American oak. It then remains for two or three years in the bottle, to ensure that the ripening process is complete.
